Maryland Leadership Workshops – Summer Camp Registration OPEN NOW!

At MLW, we believe that everyone has leadership potential. Our week-long residential programs allow middle- and high-school students to immerse themselves in all aspects of leadership. MLW delegates discover and develop their own unique strengths in daily workshops, practice their leadership skills in team projects, and are mentored by our skilled staff to find their passion, their voice, and their path.

The Maryland Leadership Workshops staff, the majority of whom were once delegates themselves, train and prepare for hundreds of hours over approximately eight weeks for our programs. From the moment they are hired, staff work on curriculum, project plans, and workshop ideas. An important feature is incorporating feedback from previous program participants as well as senior staff who come from fields of education, social work, engineering, law and management. This iterative process and a strong commitment to staff development instills a passion and commitment to MLW that is truly inspiring. The result: a life transforming experience for all involved.

Workshop topics include:

- Leadership Styles
- Self Awareness and Identity
- Group Dynamics
- Diversity
- Communication Skills
- Public Speaking
- Ethical Decision-Making

- Advocacy
- Motivation and Empowerment
- Leadership, Power, and Privilege
- Project Management
- Conflict Management
- Creative Problem Solving
